Why need to change?

Problems with the Civil Justice System

- too expensive
- too slow
- lack of equality between litigants
- too adversarial as cases run by the parties and not by the courts, with the rules all too often being ignored by the parties and not enforced by the courts
- Woolf Reform
Objectives of CJR

- CJR came into effect on 2 April 2009
- CJR underlying objectives:
  a) to increase the cost-effectiveness of any practice and procedure to be followed in relation to civil proceedings before the Court;
  b) to ensure that a case is dealt with expeditiously as is reasonable practicable;
  c) to promote a sense of reasonable proportion and procedural economy in the conduct of proceedings;
  d) to ensure fairness between the parties
  e) to facilitate the settlement of disputes; and
  f) to ensure that the resources of the Court are distributed fairly.

Impact of CJR on litigation in Hong Kong

1. active case management by the Court
2. streamlining / costs- cutting procedure
3. encouraging settlement of disputes
1. Active Case Management by the Court

a) encouraging the parties to co-operate with each other in the conduct of the proceedings;
b) identifying the issues at an early stage;
c) deciding promptly which issues need full investigation and trial and accordingly disposing summarily of the others;
d) deciding the order in which the issues are to be resolved;
e) encouraging the parties to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure if the Court considers that appropriate, and facilitating the use of such a procedure;
f) helping the parties to settle the whole or part of the case;
g) fixing timetables or otherwise controlling the progress of the case;
h) considering whether the likely benefits of taking a particular step justify the cost of taking it;
i) dealing with as many aspects of the case as practicable on the same occasion;
j) dealing with the case without the parties needing to attend at court;
k) making use of technology; and
l) giving directions to ensure that the trial of a case proceeds quickly and efficiently.

1. Active Case Management by the Court (cont’d)

• Case Management Conference

• Directions as to milestone dates (such as pre-trial review, trial date)

• Milestone dates cannot be varied unless exceptional circumstances, not even by consent between parties
2. Streamlining/ Cost-cutting procedures

- To reduce the number of interlocutory applications
- To permit paper applications
- A party who is found to have made an unnecessary or wasteful interlocutory application will have to bear costs of that application, even if he ultimately wins the case.

3. Encouraging Settlement of Disputes

   a) sanctioned offers and sanctioned payments;
   b) mediation
   c) admission to monetary claim;
   d) extending scope of pre-discovery; and
   e) costs-only proceedings.
3. Encouraging Settlement of Disputes (cont’d)

(a) Sanctioned Offers and Sanctioned Payments

- in respect of both monetary and non-monetary claims
- court may impose indemnity cost sanction and enhanced interest on costs - up to 10% above judgment rate

(b) Mediation

- Practice Direction 31 on Mediation, came into effect on 1 January 2010
- any unreasonable failure to engage in mediation may result in penalty of costs by Court
- adverse costs orders will not be made where:
  - the party has engaged in mediation to the minimum level of participation agreed to by the parties or as directed by the court prior to the mediation; and
  - a party has a reasonable explanation for not engaging in mediation
- Court with power to stay the proceedings for the purpose of mediation
3. Encouraging Settlement of Disputes (cont'd)

(c) Admission of liability to pay
- in respect of monetary claim only
- proposal regarding payment terms

(d) Pre-action discovery
- apply to cases other than personal injury or death claims

(e) Costs-only settlements

Conclusion / Overview of CJR - one year on

- generally strictly applied and upheld by Court
- examples:
  - Courts not allow unreasonable delay unless with good reason; and
  - Courts impose stringent costs sanction when a party declined the sanctioned offer and then failed to better them at trial
