SINGAPORE'S EXPERIENCE IN SELF CERTIFICATION OF ORIGIN

SCOPE

- Authorized Certification of Origin
 - Pre-exportation Verification
- Self Certification of Origin
 - Benefits of Self Certification
 - Post-exportation Verification
- Granting of Preferential Tariff Concession

Authorized Certification of Origin

- Certificates of Origin (CO) issued by Singapore Customs
- Pre-exportation Verification
 - Step 1: Manufacturer's registration
 - Step 2: Submission of Manufacturing statement

Pre-exportation Verification

- Manufacturer's Registration
 - Factory visit upon the manufacturer's application.
 - To determine:
 - manufacturing operations
 - machineries and manpower
 - production and book records

Pre-exportation verification

● Submission of Manufacturing Statement

- Contains information on descriptions and costs of raw materials used, labour, overheads and HS Codes.
- Verification that the goods in question meet the necessary Rules of Origin.

Authorized Certification of Origin

- Issuance of a Manufacturing Statement approval letter by Singapore Customs
- Application of CO
- Collection of approved CO which are signed by authorized signatories

Self Certification of Origin

- Alternative to the Authorized Certification of Origin system.
- Self-certification by exporter/ manufacturer that the said product qualified as originating good under specific Free Trade Agreement
 - Based on knowledge that product meets the requisite rules of origin
 - Certification done on company's letterhead, invoice, or prescribed format of declaration.

Self Certification of Origin

- First introduced under the Agreement between New Zealand and Singapore on a Closer Economic Partnership in 2001.
- Also practised in :
 - European Free Trade Association-Singapore FTA (ESFTA) in 2003,
 - US-Singapore FTA (USSFTA) in 2004,
 - Panama-Singapore FTA (PSFTA) in 2006 and
 - Trans-Pacific Strategic Economic Partnership Agreement (TPSEP) in 2006.

Examples of Self Certification

Schemes	Types of Self Certification
Generalized System of Preference (GSP)	Allows a declaration of origin on the face of a commercial invoice for goods
North America Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA)	A CO is certified by the exporter
Central America-Dominican Republic-United States Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA-DR)	Importer makes a declaration of origin in the importation document
New Zealand - Thailand Closer Economic Partnership Agreement	Declaration on the export's invoice

Benefits

✚ Traders

- Reduce business cost
 - time and cost savings
- Facilitate and promote utilisation of FTA
 - Shipments not held back by approval of CO

Benefits

- Singapore Customs as issuing authority
 - Manpower saving
 - No Pre-exportation verification
 - No periodic updates of authorized signatories to FTA partners

Post-exportation Verification

- Proactive Checks
 - Post audit of manufacturers/exporters who self certified through targeting
- Reactive Checks
 - Verification requests from Customs administrations of importing FTA Parties

Legislations

- Regulation of Imports and Exports Act
 - Requirements and conditions on exporters and manufacturers
 - Legal powers of Singapore Customs
 - Stiff penalties as strong deterrence for circumvention of rules of origin and false declaration

Legislative Powers

Penalties

Factors for Successful Self Certification System

- Good understanding of origin criteria by exporter/manufacturer
- Outreach and Circulars
- Rigorous post audit system
- Close cooperation and trust between customs administrations
- Robust legislations

Granting of Preferential Tariff Concessions

- Importer may claim preferential tariff based on valid CO issued by FTA partner or self certification by the overseas manufacturer or exporter.
- Indicate the claim for preferential tariff in the import declaration.

Granting of Preferential Tariff Concessions

- Supporting documents required:
 - Original copy of authorized CO or self certification by the overseas manufacturer
 - Invoice
 - Bill of Lading or Air Waybill
- Publication
 - Circular issued prior to implementation of FTA outlines the procedures for the claiming of preferential tariff for goods originating from FTA partners.
