ANNOTATED AGENDA PPFS Plenary 2
Policy Partnership on Food Security
Medan-North Sumatera, 22-24 June 2013

1. Opening

PPFS will be officially opened by the Minister of Agriculture. Before official opening, several opening remarks from the Chair and Vice Chairs will be delivered and followed by welcoming address by Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (KADIN).

2. Adoption of the Agenda (DOC 01/for consensus)

3. State of the Art: Farmers and Food Security

Farmers' role in pursuing sustainable food security is obviously important. Farmers in Asia are mostly small-scale farmers. This agenda would present conditions, capacity, challenges, and ways improve farmers' role in achieving sustainable global food security (speaker: FAO). (DOC 2/for discussion).

4. Strategic Partnership Along the Food Value Chain

International organizations have develop PRAI (Principle of Responsible Agriculture Investment). This agenda would seek ways to include farmers along the food value chain, that farmers could benefit from a more concentrated food trade (speaker: World Bank). (DOC 03/for discussion).

5. Exchange View on Best Practices and Farmers' Experiences

Six representatives from different economies with different farm business, structures and sectors (cooperative, horticulture, dairy, crops, fisheries, livestock, logistics) present: a) their best practices and experiences in implementing partnership between farmers and private sectors along the food value chain; b) their concerns and expectations for PPFS in achieving global food security. Each presenter is allocated about 7-10 minutes. The agenda will be concluded by summarizing farmers concerns and expectations to be presented to PPFS.

6. Update from APEC Secretariat

The APEC secretariat will update PPFS on its new development.

7. Report on the Intersessional Works

The PPFS Chair will present its intersessional work to the Plenary.

8. Break-out Sessions

Each working groups (WG2) will be allocated time to discuss their works before they report to the PPFS. The WGs meeting will be chaired by each WG Chair.

9. Report of Working Group

Each working group will present its progress report and seek further advice from PPFS.

10. PPFS Report

The Chair will present a concept note to be presented to SOM to be reported to the Leaders. The concept note will accomodate all the WGs reports and farmers concerns.
