e-Cert: The Chilean Experience

Submitted by: Chile
e-cert
The Chilean Experience

Joaquín Almarza S.
Agricultural Engineer Oenologist
Head of the Vines & Wines Office
Ministry Of Agriculture
joaquin.almarza@sag.gob.cl
Export Certification

The main goal of Export Certification of Alcoholics Beverages, is to certify the safety of the products and the appellation of origen of wine and Pisco spirit under the regulations of the Law N° 18.455

Export Certification of alcoholics beverages is set out as a mandatory requirement by Law, and must be carried out by the Agricultural and Livestock Service.
Export Certification System

Issuing Export Document by paperwork

1. Exporter request issuance of export documents
2. Accredited Laboratory
3. Accredited Company to certify Appellation of Origin
4. Issuer
5. Submit
Attached to the Export Certificate when this indicates variety, appellation of origin and/or vintage year.

The volume indicated in the export certificate must be equal to the volume supported by the Certificate of Wine.
Always attached to export certificate.

Certifies the potability and safety of the export product.

The volumen indicated in the export certificate must be equal to the volumen supported by the Certificate of Wine.
Total Export Certificates validates 2012: 95.987
Export Certification Procedure

To Export Certification, the exporter must comply with two requirements set out by the Law:

1. Register as exporter and /or producer into Agricultural and Livestock Service List. (Art. 13, Law N° 18.455)

2. Register of each product to export into Agricultural and Livestock Service List. (Art. 59, Decree N° 78, Law N° 18.455)
Export Certification Procedure

Having complied with the above requirements, export documentation must be supported by:

1. Appellation of Origen certificate attesting indications of geographical origin, variety and vintage of the product.

2. Analytical Report issued by a laboratory accredited by the Agricultural and Livestock Service to ensure potability and safety of the finished product.
Online Issuing of Export Documents

Wines & Vines Informatic System

Input
- Plantation sworn statement
- Harvest sworn statement
- Existence sworn statement

Output
- Certificate of wine A.O
- Wine Analytical Report
- Export Certificate
- Additional Certificates

Appellation of origen Certifying Company
Accredited Laboratory
Submission by ¿Digital Issuance or Electronic Certification?

- Available to different markets
- Easy traceability of export documents
- Print out of documents to be submitted to the authority of the importing party
- Warehouse to store the export documents
- Easy to comply with new import certifications requirements

- Bilateral agreements are necessary
- Easy traceability in Real time 24/7 of export documents
- Digital access and submission on time – all the time to export certificates
- Online validation
- Digital file storage of export documents
- Hard to comply with new import certifications requirements
Authorities of the exporting party must consider:

To have a Validation module online.
Digital storage of exports documents.
Passwords for the importing authorities to access the online system.
Database access always available to importing authorities by request.
Full access to the documents that support the export:
- producers registration
- product registration
- analytical report
- A.O. - GIs certificates

The e-Cert requires

The exporting party must guarantee to the authorities of the importing party, the complete access to his informatic system, in order to permit the search for information to clarify any doubt about the import process before contact the exporting party.

Importing Authorities must consider:

High capability to access to the export party Informatic system at any customs border.
The e-cert is a number or code that must be indicated in the commercial export invoice to support the goods.

1003511

The customs officer checks electronically this number or code, in the informatic system available by the authority of the exporting party.
Online Issuing of Export Documents 2013

Online issuing of Export documents from W&V software

Print out Submission
Web Pay and e-certificate (EU only)

Online issuing of Export documents from W&V software

Online validation by customs officers

Coming soon 2014
Thank you for your attention.