SEQ South Region

SEQ South Compliance currently has four Senior Transport Inspectors and 36 Transport Inspectors. Staff are based at Darra, Ipswich, Beenleigh, Bundall and Logan Central.

Transport Inspectors (TIs)

What is a Transport Inspector?

- Transport Inspectors are highly trained employees of the Queensland Government's Department of Transport and Main Roads.
- They play a major role in contributing to the safety of Queensland drivers and protecting the state's road infrastructure

What powers do Transport Inspectors have?

- Transport Inspectors have broad powers relating to intercepting and examining vehicles.
- They operate within strict guidelines and can issue on-the-spot fines for a range of offences or report matters for court action.

Transport Inspectors

Recognising a Transport Inspector

- Officers are easily recognised as they wear a Transport Inspector uniform. All inspectors display an official badge.
- Transport Inspectors now have new-look vehicles.
- The magenta, white and yellow decals on the vehicles makes it easier to identify a Transport Inspector.

Transport Inspectors

The duties of a Transport Inspector cover a wide variety of areas including...

Programmed Vehicle Inspections

Auditing and investigating Approved Inspection Stations (AIS)

Heavy vehicle mass, dimension and loading

Load restraint

Light vehicle compliance

Heavy vehicle compliance and over size over mass (OSOM)

Dangerous goods compliance

Heavy vehicle and passenger transport incidents

Personalised transport

A new framework for personalised transport industry

- The Queensland Government is committed to ensuring Queenslanders have safe, reliable and affordable personalised transport services and a sustainable and competitive industry to deliver them.
- Queensland's Personalised Transport Horizon – Five Year Strategic Plan for Personalised Transport Services 2016-2021, introduces a new framework for personalised transport.
- The new framework for personalised transport was an outcome of the Queensland Government's commissioning of an independent review of taxi, limousine and ride-booking services in Queensland.
