National Institute for the Sustainable Development of Artisanal Fishing and Small Scale Aquaculture INDESPA

Mission

Encourage and promote the development of artisanal fishing and small-scale aquaculture, through the strengthening of productive capacities. Its beneficiaries are exclusively artisanal fishermen with current registration in the artisanal fisheries registry.

Conclusions

- Chile focuses its subsidies on artisanal fishing, avoiding subsidies for industrial fishing.
- Sernapesca has a new tools to combat IUU fishing in the value chain. In addition, some activities associated with IUU fishing are now considered a crime.
- Indespa promote the development of small scale aquaculture and artisanal fisheries, only with current registration in the artisanal fisheries registry under Article 13 of law 21.069, establishes that no subsidy program will be given to vessels and/or operators who have been sanctioned by a final judicial or administrative decision for violating the General Law on Fisheries and Aquaculture which includes IUU fishing activities. The prohibition shall last up to 2 years from the date of decision.
