What is the ACS?

Asia-Pacific
Economic Cooperation

- The ACS or the APEC Collaboration System is a module of the APEC Information Management Portal (AIMP).
- It is consolidation of several collaboration sites catering to APEC fora/working groups.
- The ACS is provided to members as a tool to conduct discussions and share information.
- It was originally deployed in 2005 and last upgraded in 2009.

The New ACS

- The new ACS is now Cloud based using Office 365
- The new ACS is faster, easier to navigate, and administer
- New Features include
 - Enhanced Contact List
 - Document Discussions and Group Online Editing
 - Multi Browser support
 - Mobile and touch interface compatible
 - Creation of “WorkSpaces” for small group collaboration.

The New ACS (Con't)

- The new ACS can be accessed thru <https://sgapec.sharepoint.com/sites/acs/>
- Current AIMP users will still retain their old IDs' and Passwords but will have to use a full email address format using “@apeconline.org”
i.e. ph_jtb – Current ID will now be ph_jtb@apeconline.org and the user's current password.
